

PRIVACY POLICY

1. The Service Provider attaches great importance to the protection of personal data in its activities. The Service Provider shall process the personal data provided to it in compliance with the applicable laws, ensure their security, take the technical and organisational measures and establish the procedural rules necessary to comply with the applicable laws.
2. This privacy policy is drawn up in accordance with the legislation in force, in particular with regard to
 1. Act CXII of 2011 on the Right to Informational Self-Determination and Freedom of Information (hereinafter referred to as the Data Protection Act);
 2. Directive 95/46/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 October, 1995 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data;
 3. Act VI of 1998 on the proclamation of the Convention for the protection of individuals with regard to automatic processing of personal data, signed in Strasbourg on 28 January, 1981;
 4. Act CVIII of 2001 on certain aspects of electronic commerce services and information society services;
 5. Act CXIX of 1995 on the processing of name and address data for the purposes of research and direct marketing.
3. In the course of the activities of the Service of Provider, the processing of personal data is always based on voluntary consent. The Service Provider uses the data of Users exclusively for contracting, billing and its own advertising purposes in accordance with the Data Protection Act. The Service Provider may also contract external partners to organise guests. In such cases, the Service Provider is entitled to transfer the personal data of the Data Subjects to the contracted partner.
4. Rights of data subjects and how to exercise their rights:
 1. The Data Subject may request information about the processing of their personal data and may request the rectification or—with the exception of data processing required by law—the erasure of their personal data at the Service Provider's contact details provided in this policy.
 2. At the request of the data subject, the Service Provider shall provide information about the processed data, the purpose, legal basis and duration of the processing, the name, address (registered office) and activity of the Data Processor, as well as who is receiving or has received the data and for what purpose. The Service Provider shall provide the information free of charge in writing, in an accessible format, within the shortest possible time from the date of the request, but not later than 30 days.

3. The Service Provider shall correct personal data that is not accurate upon request of the Data Subject.
4. The Service Provider shall delete the personal data if
 1. its processing is unlawful,
 2. the data subject requests it,
 3. the data is incomplete or inaccurate—and this situation cannot be lawfully corrected—provided that deletion is not precluded by law,
 4. the purpose of the processing has ceased to exist,
 5. the statutory time limit for storing the data has expired,
 6. it has been ordered by a court or the Data Protection Commissioner.
5. It shall notify the Data Subject and all those to whom it has previously disclosed the data for processing purposes of the rectification and erasure. The notification may be omitted if this does not harm the legitimate interests of the Data Subject in relation to the purposes of the processing.
6. The Data Subject may take the Controller to court in the event of a breach of their rights.
7. The Service Provider shall compensate for any damage caused to others by unlawful processing of the data of the Data Subject or by violation of the requirements of technical data protection. The Controller shall be exempted from liability if it proves that the damage was caused by an unavoidable cause outside the scope of the processing. No compensation shall be due in so far as the damage was caused by the intentional or grossly negligent conduct of the injured party.
